Values & Value Definitions

SAFETY
We actively work with individuals and communities to protect against physical, emotional, psychological, economic, and sexual abuse.

UPLIFTING OTHERS
We inspire hope through listening, believing survivors, encouraging creative expression, and providing resources to plan for the future.

COMPASSION
We practice wisdom and patience to imagine each individual’s experiences without judgement.

COURAGE
We cultivate bold strength and resilience to venture forward in the face of pain, fear, and grief.

EQUITY
We stand up, speak out, and take action for diversity, equity, and inclusion for all.

SURVIVOR-CENTERED ADVOCACY
We prioritize the needs and wishes of survivors on their healing journeys by creating a supportive, affirming environment that treats all survivors with dignity and respect.

STEWARDSHIP
We build and continuously improve our organization’s systems to manage and protect the resources entrusted to us.
